Christian Associates of Southwest Pennsylvania working for the unity of the church and the wholeness of communities through collegiality, collaboration, and connectedness

Sermons on Mary, Mother of Jesus: Christian Associates of Southwest Pennsylvania has published the second volume in a series of collected writings by local preachers, Blessed Art Thou Among Women: Southwest Pennsylvania Preaches on Mary, Mother of Jesus brings together the work of 19 bishops, priests, deacons, and vowed religious from throughout Southwest Pennsylvania. In sermons, essays, poetry, and blog posts, these Catholic, Protestant, and Orthodox writers interpret and celebrate Mary's life and legacy. The book is available now for free download at: www.casp.org/sermons; printed copies are also available for a nominal fee. The authors come from the American Baptist, Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Episcopal, Lutheran, Mennonite, Presbyterian, Orthodox, and Roman Catholic traditions. Among the preachers represented are Bishop David a Zubik of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh; Bishop Edward Malesic of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Greensburg; Protopresbyter Thomas Hopko (1939-2015) of St. Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary; the Rev. Eric McIntosh of St. James Episcopal Church in Penn Hills; and Pastor Kerri Clark of Trinity Lutheran Church in Connellsville. "The breadth of perspectives in this volume is truly remarkable," said the Rev. Liddy Barlow, Executive Minister of Christian Associates, who served as the book's editor. "Whether they are writing about the annunciation narrative in Luke or John's account of the crucifixion, about special days such as the Feast of the Presentation, or apparitions at Fatima or Guadalupe, these writers use their knowledge and creativity to introduce us to the Theotokos, Mary, a young woman who became Mother of God." The book is the second in a series of sermon collections titled "The Word in Our Voices," The first volume. "I Was a Stranger and You Welcomed Me"; Southwest Pennsylvania Preaches on Immigration and Refugees," was published in September 2017. Future volumes on racism (September 2018) and baptism (spring 2019).
